

Community Choir to Sing Mozart's 'Requiem' Sunday

Two performances of the "Requiem" by Mozart will complete the musical season of the El Camino College Community Choir, Crist Mikkelsen, conductor, announced this week. One presentation will be held Sunday at 8:30 p.m. in the Mormon Stake Center, Gardena. The second will be performed in the El Camino College Campus Theater on Saturday, June 10, at 8:30 p.m.

The choir, unique in its combination of talents by El Camino students, will feature the solo voices of Mrs. Stella Herman, soprano; Mrs. Dorothy Haffenden, alto; Richard Fyhr, tenor, and Lyle Heck, bass.

Mrs. Herman recently appeared with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera during the production of "Show Boat." Fyhr was heard in the Christmas presentation of the "Messiah," and Heck is remembered for singing the male lead in "South Pacific." Mrs. Haffenden was soloist in a recent performance of "Elijah."

Accompanists will be Mrs. Kay Grantham at the piano and Mrs. Elinor Jacobson at the organ.

No admission charge will be made for either performance.

Missionary To Speak On Sunday

Arthur Knowles of the Far East Broadcasting Co. will be the speaker at the Sunday evening service at Calvary Community Church on June 4, at 7:30 p.m. He will present the story of this missionary broadcasting group through the film, "Voice in the Night."

A highlight of the film is actual jamming of Gospel programs by the Communists. "Voice in the Night," a production that covers a period of nine years was filmed in the Philippines, Hong Kong, and other Far-East locations.
